

LEEDS & York

Not to be missed...

Leeds and York are two unique cities each steeped in history and surrounded by landscapes of epic proportions in the Yorkshire Dales and the North York Moors National Park. Together they form the perfect package, and it's only a 25-minute train journey between them or a 40-minute drive. From the medieval streets and ancient walls of York to the grand Victorian arcades and romantic abbey ruins in Leeds, each city retains distinct layers of its history, alongside vibrant food and drink scenes, independent shopping and exceptional accommodation.

The two cities are perfectly placed half-way between London and Edinburgh, with the glorious Yorkshire Dales, North York Moors National Park and Wolds right on their doorsteps.

Must see attractions in Leeds...

There are so many things to see and do in each city, here are some recommendations of the top places to visit as part of a one- or two-day itinerary.

1. THE ROYAL ARMOURIES MUSEUM

The Royal Armouries Museum is Britain's national museum of arms and armour and the sister museum to the Tower of London. Explore one of the world's largest collection of weapons and armour including the armour of King Henry VIII, a unique set of elephant armour and expect live demonstrations during your visit.

2. LEEDS ART GALLERY & TILED HALL CAFE

Explore modern and contemporary art and collections of British painting and sculpture in a stunning grade II listed building dating from the 1880s. The collection, contains art works by Anthony Gormley, Henry Moore and Barbara Hepworth as well as notable works by Leeds-based artist John Atkinson Grimshaw.

Insider Tip

The Tiled Hall café was once the Reading Room for the central library, which was hidden for decades beneath panelling until it was restored to its former glory in 2007. It is one of the most beautiful, tiled rooms in the country, and showcases the creative tile-making industries in Leeds.

3. VICTORIAN ARCADES

No trip to Leeds is complete without time spent exploring the spectacular shopping arcades. The Victoria

Quarter built in the 1890s has two breath-taking arcades which house high-end fashion brands and if you look up you'll experience the majesty of the largest stained-glass ceiling in the country. Thorntons Arcade is the oldest, built in 1878 and Queens in 1889 are home to a rich variety of independent shops and cafes.

4. KIRKGATE MARKET

At the heart of the Leeds retail scene since 1857, Leeds Kirkgate Market is one of the largest indoor markets in Europe and is the birthplace of Marks & Spencer. If you can think of a cuisine, the chances are you can get it at Leeds Kirkgate Market.

5. HAREWOOD HOUSE

One of the Treasure Houses of England and steeped in history, Harewood is a perfect day-trip only a short distance from Leeds city centre. With a magnificent stately home set in Capability Brown designed landscape, you can enjoy themed events and live music in the stunning grounds.

6. KIRKSTALL ABBEY

The picturesque ruins of Kirkstall Abbey stand on the banks of the River Aire on the edge of the city-centre. The abbey, built in 1152 is one of the most complete Cistercian Abbeys in the UK. Today it sits within seven acres of parkland and visitors can explore the grounds and ruins as well as discover more about life for the 12th century monks.

... and York

1. YORK MINSTER

Discover one of the world's most magnificent cathedrals, a masterpiece in stained glass and stone and a sacred space which has been at the centre of Christianity in the north of England since the 7th century. Marvel at the Great East Window, the largest single expanse of medieval stained glass in the country, take a guided tour filled with stories from the building's 800-year history or visit the Undercroft Museum to explore the remains of a Roman barracks and the cathedral's links to Viking York.

2. JORVIK VIKING CENTRE
