

LEEDS & York

Royal Connections

Leeds and York are two unique cities each steeped in history and surrounded by landscapes of epic proportions in the Yorkshire Dales and the North York Moors National Park. Together they form the perfect package, and it's only a 25-minute train journey between them or a 40-minute drive. From the medieval streets and ancient walls of York to the grand Victorian arcades and romantic abbey ruins in Leeds, each city retains distinct layers of its history, alongside vibrant food and drink scenes, independent shopping and exceptional accommodation.

The two cities are perfectly placed half-way between London and Edinburgh, with the glorious Yorkshire Dales, North York Moors National Park and Wolds right on their doorsteps.

York is a vibrant festival city with Roman roots and a Viking past, offering an adventure for everyone. One of Britain's historic cities, this unique 2000-year-old walled city has more attractions per square mile than any other city in the UK. Boasting the National Railway Museum, one of the world's most magnificent cathedrals, York Minster, and the world-famous JORVIK Viking Centre, you'll find world-class museums, galleries and walking tours uncovering hidden secrets all within easy distance. Crowned Britain's home of chocolate and the most haunted city in Europe, York is abundant with culture and character, with a varied calendar of events and festivals year-round. Plus, the city's thriving creative and arts community has earned an esteemed UNESCO City of Media Arts status.

WALK IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF ROYALTY

The cities of Leeds and York are a must-visit for anyone wishing to walk in the footsteps of British royalty. Harewood House in Leeds and Castle Howard north of York are both ranked amongst the finest stately homes in the country. Both houses date back to the eighteenth century and, in their long illustrious histories, have hosted many Kings and Queens, including Queen Victoria and Queen Elizabeth II. More recently, each house continues to inspire as filming locations for historical shows and films including Victoria, Downton Abbey and Bridgerton to name a few.

Castle Howard

CASTLE HOWARD

One of Britain's finest stately homes, situated just outside York in the Howardian Hills. Built over 300 years ago by Sir John Vanbrugh, today it remains home to the Howard family. Discover the House at your own pace, admiring its awe-inspiring architecture and interiors, with something to capture everyone's imagination. Enjoy stunning scenery all year, exploring almost 1,000 acres of Grade 1 listed parkland and gardens. Spend the day in a monumental landscape studded with statues, temples, lakes and fountains and admire sweeping countryside views. Meander along woodland paths and in the tranquil walled garden.

Insider Tip

Castle Howard is just a 30-minute drive from York city centre. Parking is free (there are occasions where parking charges are in place for certain events). A direct bus service, Route 81, runs from York to Castle Howard. House, Garden and Travel inclusive tickets are available on selected dates from April to October, with collection from York City Centre - The comfortable Mountain Goat Tours minibus leaves York twice daily.

Harewood House, State Bedroom

HAREWOOD HOUSE

Harewood House has been a favourite of the Royal Family for centuries, since a young Princess Victoria first visited in 1835 shortly before her coronation. Princess Mary lived at Harewood House from 1935 until her death in 1965, making it an official Royal household. Princess Mary, affectionately known as 'The Yorkshire Princess' was the aunt of Queen Elizabeth II who regularly visited. Explore its breath-taking Lancelot "Capability" Brown landscape and acres of formal gardens, or take in the splendour of the State Rooms filled with original Chippendale furniture. For the truly quintessential British experience, opt for an Afternoon Tea taken in the elegant Billiard Room overlooking the manicured gardens.

Insider Tip

Harewood House is just a 25-minute drive from Leeds city centre. The house is open daily from April to October, from 10.30am to 4pm and the grounds from 10am to 6pm. It closes from mid-October to mid-November, then re-opens for the Christmas Season. From January to March the house and grounds are open Friday to Sunday. A minimum visit of three hours is recommended for exploring the house and gardens, or you can easily spend a full day taking in the exhibitions and a leisurely walk around the extended grounds as well as enjoying an Afternoon Tea.
